

FORMER NRM UNIFORM ITEMS NO LONGER AUTHORIZED FOR WEAR AS PART OF THE OFFICIAL NRM UNIFORM.

(As of 01 January 2005)

The following items were at one time part of the NRM Uniform Program, but have been either replaced by other uniform items or simply removed from the program. Should an employee still have these items, they should remove any identification (patch) and refrain from wearing them while on duty. Patches should be either turned into the Supervisors or destroyed.

1. All Class A Uniform items, to include:
 - a. Dress shirt, Pale Green, long or short sleeve
 - b. Trousers, Gray, wool or polyester
 - c. Belt, black, 1" wide, plain with gold buckle
 - d. Tie, green with gray Corps castles
 - e. Overcoat, gray London Fog
 - f. Sweater, green, cardigan style
2. Coat, "Tuffy-Topper", green with black faux fur collar and detachable lining
3. Trousers, "Challenger", green polyester
4. Trousers, "Chetopa", green polyester.
5. Vest, Green, Down-filled
6. Vest, Green, Hollofilled.
7. Sweater, Gray, Commando-style
8. Hat, Gray, Sheriff's Style, Felt or Straw
9. Jacket, Green, Gabardine ("Texaco" jacket) with zip out liner
10. Any uniform item bearing the rectangular shoulder patch.

The following items have been replaced in the uniform program, however are still authorized for wear until such time as they are faded, stained, torn, or otherwise unserviceable. They include:

1. Coveralls, Green, Insulated
2. Hat, Fur Trooper, Green with Black faux fur
3. Jeans, Green, denim
4. Raincoat, Reversible, Green/Orange
5. Windbreaker, Green with epaulets and brass buttons